

Guardian Event Action Planning

Services

Does your community have a mass gathering approaching within the next year? This could be a festival, concert, sporting event, community fair, or other related event. Our team will provide event action planning for your upcoming mass gathering. This consists of constructing an event action plan for the event and facilitating or supporting planning meetings. Our team can also send representatives to the mass gathering in real-time or remotely to support during the event management process.